THE HOLLYWOOD PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL is an accredited college preparatory school, which was established for the purpose of offering a strong academic foundation to professional students actively engaged in motion picture or radio work. The large enrollment of non-professional students and those studying intensively in some branch of the cultural arts, attests the adaptability of the program. The school's educational ideal may be briefly expressed as the desire to give training and advice which will enable the student to achieve his highest potentialities.

Significant among the many contributing factors to the realization of this objective, is the guidance program. Each student's course of study is planned according to his interests, talents, and objectives. By developing those qualities and skills which will enable him to find gainful employment and to become a desirable member of his community, he is prepared for economic independence. Aesthetic and cultural subjects are considered essential as preparation for leisure time. As a result of this integrating program and personalized instruction, graduates have been able, not only to bring credit to themselves and to the school, but to "keep pace with an ever-changing world."

14 Deb Stars 'Coming Out' on Nov. 24

Hollywood's newest aggregation of beauties, this year's 14 Deb Stars, will be presented Saturday night, Nov. 24, at the Hollywood Palladium at the 10th annual Deb Star Ball.

These girls were selected from approximately 80 young actresses as filmdom's "most likely to succeed."

The candidates are nominated by studios, television networks, production companies and accredited agents.

Competition Narrowed

This field is narrowed to 23 finalists by a committee representing the Hollywood Make-Up Artists and Hair Stylists Guild. From the finalists are selected the 14 Deb Stars of the year.

Of 100 actresses selected in past years as Deb Stars, 83 subsequently achieved stardom in motion pictures or television.

The 23 finalists this year are Ann Barnes, Sandra Bettin, Sandra Descher, Mimsy Farmer, Joan Freeman, Laurel Goodwin, Susan Hart, Stephanie Hill, Sharyn Lyn Hillyer, Shelia James, Karyn Kupcinet, Lori Martin, Patty McCormick, Judee Morton, Barbara Parkins, Diana Pieper, Linda Rogers, Brenda Scott, Susan Seaforth, Roberta Shore, Nola Thorp, Jan Watson and Lana Wood.

Hollywood School Among City's Best

Hollywood Professional School, a coeducational academic day school, is considered to be one of the city's better private institutions.

Thorough academic instruction is emphasized at the 36-year-old school. Accredited to all Eastern and Western colleges and universities, Hollywood Professional School can claim the distinction of being a unique institution. The student body consists of both professional and nonprofessional students from nursery school through senior high school. Brenda Lee, popular singer, is a senior this year.

Examples of some of the gifted students who have taken advantage of Hollywood Professional's facilities include Marie Elizabeth Halpern, a graduate of Hollywood Professional School at 14 and winner of the school's scholarship award, graduated this year at University of California at Los Angeles, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Otto Halpern of Pacific Palisades. Another graduate of Hollywood Professional is Glenn Crabbs, who was admitted to the California Institute of Technology at the age of 16.

The Hollywood Professional School's high scholastic standards are demonstrated by the dean's honor list at UCLA. Hollywood Professional School graduates Jon Drury, Sue Foo, Robert Forbes, Fred Groth, Maria Halpern, Barna McDevitt and Don Donnell Zimmerman, Phi Beta Kappa at UCLA, were on these honor rolls.

A four-year scholarship to the School of Medicine, University of Southern California, has been established in the name of Hollywood Professional School by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Shore of Los Angeles, to give public recognition to this fine private day school's academic accomplishments.

Chapel Scores

BY SHAVENAU GLICK
Chapel Drills

His 17-year-old partner, Yvonne, took a leave of absence from studies at Los Angeles State to compete in this year's series of world events.

Although he won't make the North American and world events, perhaps the brightest light of future U.S. hopes on the ice Sunday was a 15-year-old Hollywood boy, Billy Chapel.

Billy, a rosy-cheeked youngster with wavy-black hair, spends five hours a day on the ice the year-round to perfect the style that won him the U.S. national juniors. His dedication includes attending Hollywood Professional School, usually reserved for actor children. This gives him more opportunity to compete in meets during the school year.

Hopes for Olympics

"My ambition is to make the U.S. Olympic and world teams," said Billy after his dazzling unanimous win Sunday. "No, that's not enough. Make it to win the Olympic and world championships," he smilingly add-

SANDRA DESCHER, a senior at Hollywood Professional School, will graduate January 31. An A student preparing for college, Sandra plays the part of a daughter in the Loretta Young TV Show. Sandra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Descher of Woodland Hills.

Tarzana C of C Slates First Meeting of '63

TARZANA — First general meeting of 1963 will be held by the Tarzana Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at noon at the Buena Ventura Inn, 18673 Ventura Blvd.

President Jack Baum is scheduled to name committee chairmen for the new year. In addition, a new director will be elected to replace Phil Capen, who resigned.

To Honor Youth

The chamber will honor Mace Goodman, 14, who won a sports car in a national contest but is too young to drive the auto, at the luncheon.

The chamber announced it has adopted an official insignia, comprised of a golden key set against a Valley scene. The key represents the means of unlocking the door to Tarzana, the "paradise community," which is depicted in the background.

'What Young People Think'

Teens' Music Taste Cools Down

By Gilbert Youth Service

Slower, more conservative music is seen by America's teen-agers as the major record trend for 1963.

The prediction is made by 197 of the 1259 young people questioned in our annual popular music poll.

That's three times as many as foresee a faster beat and louder music, which rates second place.

Trends spotted by lesser groups of young people include more dance craze songs, more revivals of old hits, a continuing output of Rock 'n Roll records, and more ballads and folk songs.

The Cha-Cha-Cha has pretty much disappeared from the popular music scene and no revival is expected, apparently, for it is at the bottom of the long list of expected trends.

Brenda Lee reigns once more as queen of the female singers, with 34 per cent of girls and 31 per cent of boys naming her as their favorite. Connie Francis is the runner-up.

Third in the poll is Connie Stevens, followed by Linda Scott and Etta James.

Brenda's record of "All Alone Am I" was the top record of 1962, copping 82 per cent of the votes cast.

"Big Girls Don't Cry" by The Four Seasons, with 70 per cent of the votes, comes in second.

Elvis comes back to take the spotlight as favorite male vocalist this year, receiving 177 votes.

Not far behind in second place is Johnny Mathis. Following in order are Dion, Rickey Nelson and Ray Charles.

Two television personalities, Richard Chamberlain and Vince Edwards, better known as "Dr. Kildare" and "Ben Casey," who made their debuts as vocalists, also appear in the poll findings.

'DR. KILDARE' LISTED

Richard Chamberlain ranks eighth among the favorite male singers. Vince Edwards' recording of "Patches" is one of six tied for ninth place among the year's top records.

Gazing into their crystal balls, the youngsters select Brenda Lee and John Crawford as the most promising young singers.

Place of honor as favorite vocal group of 1962 goes to Second is The Kingston Trio, who captured the top spot in 1960 and last year dropped to third place.

Two other new groups to this list, The Lettermen, and Peter, Paul and Mary, rank third and fourth. Fifth place goes to The Shirelles, first place winners last year.

Great expectations apparently are held for The Four Seasons; they also are chosen as the most promising vocal group for 1962. Second place goes to Peter, Paul and Mary.

Lobrees Dance At LA County Fair

Monterey Park's mother and daughter dance team, Evelyn and Teri Lobree of 226 Keller Street, Montrey Park will appear at the Los Angeles County Fair from 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Saturday.

They will perform with other members of the Hollywood Silver Stars to which they also belong.

Child Actress Models

Yusie Burke, 11, of Burbank, a well-known child actress, will model spring fashions for The Wear-House, 3802 W. Magnolia Blvd., at the Magnolia Park Merchants and Chamber of Commerce Spring Fashion Show, Friday morning, at the California Theatre.

She will appear on a forthcoming "Lassie" show on TV, and is in the movie, "A Child Is Waiting."

DEL PIERCE AND THE KNOCKOUTS—Final plans have been made and all is in readiness for TEEN SWING dance at Garver Memorial Auditorium tomorrow night, 8 to 11:30 p.m., as part of the second annual Barstow Desert Wildflower and Gem Festival. The talented combo will provide the best of live music and entertainment for local high school and college age students. Del was recently honored with the 'USO Trouper's Award' as the only teenager to headline a USO variety show. Del is a student at the Hollywood Professional School and secretary of his class. Other members of the combo include Danny Braymer, drummer, who attends the Foundation for the Junior Blind and the winner of contests over radio station KFOX; Dennis Arnold, guitarist who attends the West Covina High School. Arnold was formerly with the Exclusives band. Other members of the trio include Louise Larrabee, Spanish dancer, and Alexa Pov and a comedy act. Tickets for the dance are on sale now the Desert Dispatch, or may be obtained at the door at 7 cents per person.

SKATER-ACTRESS

Andra Bissett of Pacoima, 9-year-old television actress, makes her ice-skating debut in Schramm's Tenth Anniversary Ice Show, Sept. 14 and 15 at Starlight Bowl, Burbank.

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO WAIT A YEAR?

A winner with woes is 14-year-old Mace Goodman son of Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Goodman of Tarzana, who has won Austin Healey Sprite in a contest sponsored by Hortex Manufacturing Co. Jerry Topper (left) of Frank Millard Sports Cars of Encino; Jim Alexander of Hambro Distributors representing the newly formed British Motor Corp., Hambro, Inc., and Dr. Goodman (right) participate in the award ceremony at the J. W. Robinson store in Panorama City. Mace has to wait a little more than a year to drive his new car. Alexander recently was guest of honor at the Southern California Council of Sports Car Clubs annual award dinner.

SHRINERS PRESENT YOUNG MUSICIAN

Nine-year-old Sheila Score protege of Liberace, is shown with noted pianist while planning appearance at 8 o'clock tonight and tomorrow at Shrine Auditorium, under auspices of Al Malaikah Temple. Sheila plays popular, classical, "boogie," jazz. The young pianist will play Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue," accompanied by 21-piece orchestra, following which she will give impersonation of Liberace. Youngster has played in variety shows, toured missile, air bases and has given over 50 concerts. She lives in Tarzana.

To Appear In 'Lassie' Film

Jack Wrother Productions, which produces the popular "Lassie" TV series, announces they have just signed Yusie Burke to appear in "A Matter of Pride," segment now being filmed at Desilu, starring Jon Provost, June Lockhart and Hugh Reilly.

Yusie, a very promising and busy local actress, is 11 and attends the seventh grade at the Hollywood Professional School. Recently, she appeared with Judy Garland and Burt Lancaster, in "A Child Is Waiting."

Dear Mr. Mann,

Thought I'd write and let you know all the happenings in Germany. So far we've had a wonderful time. We've been to Amsterdam where - Before I came here, I was in Hamburg making records on Decca. They thank at Hotel Atlantic

I leave here the 10th, and go to England for three weeks - Among that time, I also go to Ireland and Scotland for a couple of days. Wish you could be over there with me.

How's Mr. Mann, Mrs. Dawson, all the teachers and all the students very well - I'm looking forward to having everyone on graduation day.

The weather here is unreliable. Snow in mountains, and it seems as if it gets colder every day.

Everyone here sends their love to you. Let me hear from you soon.

I hope that you and your family are fine - Say hello to mother, as well as Dad and my sister.

I'll close for now, as I have to get ready for my next show.

NOMINATED BEST SUPPORTING ACTRESS FOR HER ROLE IN A WARNER'S PRODUCTION OF THE MOVIE "THE BAD SEED" AS RHODA

Patty McCormack

Patty McCormack, though only seventeen, has earned her laurels in all the theatrical media. Born in Brooklyn, New York, Patty has been a trouper since she was six, making her professional acting debut in the Broadway production of "Touchstone" and following it up with her brilliant portrayal of the wicked youngster in "The Bad Seed." Her TV credits include "I Remember Mama" and "Peck's Bad Girl."

Blue-eyed Patty favors a long bob for her soft ash-blond hair and she's always careful to keep her head under cover when she's in bright sun. Her special hair care includes a mild shampoo and a cream rinse. Her classic hairstyle was designed by Naomi Cavin.

The graceful waves were created by setting curls for bangs both backward and forward; one center row, front to back of head, of rollers and the rest in pin curls. The back pin curls are similar to the front so that wave is evident for her longer bob. For comb-out, hair is brushed all to right side without a part and lifted into soft bangs . . . the right side breaks into two soft waves and the left side goes almost straight back before making a puffy wave, swinging forward and then back.

Mary Miller

16-Year-Old Singing Star Debuts at DI

By JOY HAMANN
R-J Staff Writer

When you're 16 the whole world is your own special toy balloon. And when you have the talent and future that Mary Miller has, the feeling is justified.

On her 16th birthday in February Mary received a present guaranteed to make the heart of any teenager — and a lot of people well out of their teens — do flip-flops.

She had a highly successful screen test at 20th Century Fox. So successful that Darryl F. Zanuck offered her a seven-year contract, but the pert singer's astute business manager declined.

Mary, who is making her stage debut at the Desert Inn in the Phil Harris show, said "I've really just never been tangled. The director gave me a bouquet of long-stemmed roses, and I got some candy. It was really the most exciting birthday I've ever had."

TINY — JUST a shade over five feet, and a size 7 — Mary has a voice that sounds as though it should be coming from someone three times her size.

In show business comparisons are routine, and people hearing the part Texas beauty have heard voices ranging from "just like Kay Starr," to "a petticoat Ethel Merman."

In the past few months a lot of things have happened to Mary. Two appearances on the Dobie Gillis show — one written especially to showcase her vocal ability — the screen test, a contract with Reprise Records, her night club debut here.

AND TWO years ago Mary was a typical Beaumont school girl. But there was one big difference — she loved to sing and people loved to listen.

A little more than a year ago Mary and her family were visiting friends in Memphis. She sang for them and they were immediately impressed. They had a friend, they said, who used to work with Elvis Presley. Could they call him to come listen to her?

THEY DID, and enter J. R. Di[illegible], a manager of a man who "was just about to get out of the management game until I heard Mary."

From that moment on, Mar[illegible] Miller was no longer going t[illegible] sing "just for friends."

Odyssey — whose Tennessee accent and apparent lack of confidence cover a very practical business approach to life — took over, and the next few months were good[illegible] busy for Mary and her family.

NOW PERMANENTLY living in Hollywood, where she attends Hollywood Professional School, along with her theatrical concert parts, Mary has lost none of the soft charm that sets aside the southern belle.

In the future for Mary are an appearance with Reese at Lake Tahoe after closing at the DI a[illegible] May, more records, a possible Ed Sullivan show, and something all teenage girls look forward to — [illegible]

Her first date.

WENDY TURNER
. . . singing contract

As El Monte teen-ager, who has never sold a record, has signed a seven - year - singing contract with Capitol Records.

Wendy Turner, 16, [redacted] received court approval Thursday to sign the contract.

After her appearance in Judge [redacted] Byrne's Los Angeles courtroom, blonde Miss Turner explained how she accidentally got into the record business.

"A friend asked me to make a test record he had written called 'Story Teller,' " she said. "For it I taught I made it with just a guitar for accompaniment. The record company liked it."

The diminutive Wendy makes her American film debut in Walt Disney's "Summer Magic" and says she [redacted] herself more of an actress than singer.

The contract calls for Miss Turner to make a specific number of records each month. She is paid for making the recordings and receives a percentage of the record sales. She will make pop-lar recordings.

Until she is 21, 5 per cent of her earnings must go into a trust account.

The London - born Miss Turner came to the Southland in 1961 with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jack Turner.

One of the first requirements for a boy to become a member of the Boy Scouts of America is to describe the Flag of the United States of America and tell its history in brief. He must know

When to salute it,
When to fly it,
Show how to hoist, lower, display and fold the Flag,
and know the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Southern Girl Seeks Children for Movie

SCOUT IS A TOMBOY

Cheryl Ann Creel, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Creel of Garland, does a typical pose for the character of Scout in the book "To Kill a Mockingbird." She is being interviewed by Miss Alice Bourwright, talent scout for Universal-International, which will make a movie of the book by Harper Lee. Cheryl Ann has been a member of the Junior Players Guild for four years and has appeared in three productions. She is, as she puts it, "interested in an acting career."

Variety Show Highlights Entertainment at Contest

A variety show under the direction of Mrs. H. B. Alexander will highlight entertainment at the Miss Flame contest sponsored by the Garland Fire Department Thursday evening, at the gymnasium at Garland School.

Program participants include a quartet composed of Jan Gibbs, Jimmie Sellars, Carver and Royce Rhodes of Jarland High School; routine by Jan Wright, Gayle Stice and Jackson; majorettes of the Dixie and a fire hazard by Miss Joyce McCann.

Variety Show Highlights Elk's Auxiliary Meeting

A variety show highlighted the program at the recent meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Elks Club with Mrs. Peggy Alexander serving as mistress of ceremony.

Also giving a talent act were two very young readers, Terri Locklear and Rhonda Rigsby.

HOLLYWOOD PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL

H. P. S. is quite a school
Nobody ever goes by the rules for fun
And frolic and great aud calls,
Go to this school and have a Ball.

Some kids study and others don't
Some teachers fuss and others won't
All and all this school is great
For professional kids who are always late.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann, so understanding they are,
Never treating anyone like a star
Always treating each child the same
Never being prejudiced over anyone's name.

Miss Anderssen, Principal of the place
Makes all the kids keep a steady pace
Puts up with no nonsense, but still has fun,
Miss Anderssen, undoubtedly, is good medicine for anyone.

Most all the teachers in H. P. S.
Are very critical on how the kids dress,
Be presentable is all they ask,
But to some kids this is such a task.

Activities galore to keep you busy
Lessons and homework that will make you dizzy
It's a wonderful experience and a wonderful place,
If you haven't been to H. P. S.,
Resign from the Human Race.
